

BIO/INTRO

---

Kirsten Haglund is an international speaker, mental health advocate and political analyst appearing daily across television news networks and radio, including MSNBC, CNN International, Fox Business Network, and Fox News Channel. She hosts The Sonder Podcast on Faithwire News, interviewing thought leaders from various sectors, and Bold LIFE for Bold Global TV. Her Op-Eds on politics, culture and non-profit advocacy have appeared in the New York Daily News, Forbes.com, Huff Post and in industry journals. Through her media and communications company, she serves as a social media marketing and community relations consultant and is the Founder of The Kirsten Haglund Foundation, which provides financial assistance to families battling eating disorders. She served as Miss America 2008 and Goodwill Ambassador for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals. Kirsten graduated from Emory University with a B.A. in Political Science and is currently based in New York City.